Carthage summer business camps offer insider access for high school students

Learn how the Packers, Cubs and major manufacturers operate as you earn college credit

KENOSHA, Wis. – Carthage College’s School of Business and Economics will offer two exciting summer camps for business-minded high school students. Both camps will provide extraordinary experiences and the opportunity to earn college credit.

Sport Business Camp: ‘Authorized Personnel Only’

Sport Business Camp: “Authorized Personnel Only,” introduces high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors to the business side of sports. Campers will enjoy rare, behind-the-scenes experiences with sports organizations such as the United Center, Chicago Cubs, Green Bay Packers, and Forward Madison. Students will learn about sports marketing, sales, finance, game day operations, facility operations, and human resources.

The five-day overnight camp runs June 17-21, and those who complete it earn four college credits. The $1,350 registration fee includes overnight accommodation at Carthage College, all meals and supplies, and transportation for stadium site visits. The registration deadline is June 10.

Business Camp: ‘How It’s Made’

The five-day “How It’s Made” business camp will take place July 8-12, and those who complete it earn four college credits. High school sophomores, juniors, and seniors will see how real-world manufacturers carry out essential business functions. The day camp includes unique hands-on learning experiences and site visits to local companies.

The $850 registration fee includes college-level classroom sessions, two meals per day, and transportation. The registration deadline is June 30.
